DOC. MICRO. SER.

1. Undersigned has been considering subject's recruitment since the Spring of 1949, at which time he met subject in Vienna through an arrangement of Ivan VILLAX. The Salzburg Base was at that time not in a position to follow up the case. In the meantime he was recruited by USACE, who dropped subject in 1951 because his control agent considered subject cowardly and at the same time overly ambitious. In spite of this, ☐ considers subject as a man with good potentials as a chief agent and/or stay-behind w/t operator, attributing the adverse opinion primarily to lack of professional guidance.

2. We request traces and provisional operational clearance.
